

FIELD ORDERS

November 4, 2015

1. Unit commanders are responsible for the conduct of their men, to ensure that their men are well drilled, that they are informed of battalion matters, and current with their battalion dues.
 2. Sergeants and Corporals will assist with drill and maintain good order among the men as well as carry out all orders given to them by the Sergeant Major or battalion officers.
 3. All battalion officers and NCOs are responsible for the good order and discipline of the men.
 4. All non-battalion members seeking to fall in with the Palmetto Battalion at any event must have prior approval of the staff.
 5. Any special impressions must be approved by the battalion staff.
 6. All units are required to furnish manpower for fatigue duty, provost, camp guard, and other functions as required by the Sergeant Major.
 7. Ladies will not function on the field of battle as soldiers without prior approval of the company involved.
 8. No unit of the Palmetto Battalion will act independently during a re-enactment without prior approval of the Battalion Colonel.
 9. Modern equipment must be kept from sight when the camp is open to the public.
 10. Cigarette smoking is prohibited while the camp is open to the public.
 11. Members not present at morning muster may be subject to extra duty as assigned by the Sergeant Major.
 12. Members not present at assigned drills may be restricted from participation in that day's battle(s). Only a prior written excuse from that member's commander will excuse an absence.
 13. The use of shotguns is prohibited on the field unless prior approval is received from the Battalion Colonel.
 14. There will be no pets brought to a Palmetto Battalion sanctioned event by a member of the Palmetto Battalion.
 15. All minors (under the age of 17) shall be supervised by a parent or guardian of record at all times during an event. All suspected incidents of underage drinking shall be immediately reported to the battalion staff who will contact the minor's parents or guardian to have them removed from the event.
-